

TWELFTH TRANSDIMENSIONAL LEVEL

LOCATION

There are black holes in the space located within your atomic structure. These black holes sit on the edge of the universe, between the unmanifested and the manifested reality or between the implicate and the explicate order. These black holes represent your chakra connection to the twelfth dimension that is at one and the same time, your connection to the edge of this universe and other universes. The black hole is a hub connection.

ANCHOR POINTS ON THE PLANET

There are numerous anchor points for the twelfth dimension on the planet. One of the anchor points that I have visited is at the sacred site of New Grange in Ireland. Many of the anchor points are actually what I call quantum caves, real caves that exist in the earth all over the world: the Himalayas, Finland, Spain, Africa, and Slovenia. The inhabitants are twelfth dimensional ascended masters. The central organizing cave is located in the Santa Fe Mountains with a guide called Gabriella of the Santa Fe Mountains. Gabriella regulates the contact and connection between and among all of the caves.

ASSOCIATED COLOR

I always see and feel a velvety, dark, black space.

PERSONAL ISSUES ASSOCIATED WITH THIS CHAKRA

This is another level that vibrates so far beyond human experience that there are no personal issues associated with this chakra.

ABOUT THE TWELFTH DIMENSION

- The twelfth dimension exists simultaneously both within this universe and between this universe and other universes; it sits "on the rim."
- The twelfth dimension contains very powerful twelfth dimensional guides whose job it is to regulate the contact between the universe and the earth, and to regulate the right relationship between the evolution of the universe with the evolution of the earth. The earth's evolutionary track co-evolves with the universe and each impacts the other.
- The twelfth dimension has a unified field which means that when you work from this dimension, you simultaneously have access to the dimensions, magnetics, worlds and all aspects of the universe.
- The twelfth dimension resides outside of time and through (not in) space.
- There are quantum animals on the planet and contact with them is wonderful! Humpback whales, some Tanzanian elephants and a few other very specific individual, exotic wild animals vibrate to the twelfth dimension.

I once swam with a mother, baby and father whale for an entire hour way out in the middle of the ocean off the coast of the Dominican Republic where at that time, it was legal to swim with the whales. At first, I saw only mother and baby and had the good fortune to have direct eye contact with the baby who was only inches away. It was like being struck by the lightning of pure innocent joy. The mother was only a few feet away steadily watching the encounter. Then all of a sudden, from the depths below me, I saw an unformed dark cloud begin to surface. It was the overarching, protective field of the father. In an instant, I had the awareness that the father was overseeing the entire engagement, gauging just how long the mother and baby were to swim with each one of us and the group as a whole. I remember this awe inspiring, overwhelming respect for the immensity of the father whale's consciousness, thinking that this was truly God embodied in matter. This was one of the most powerful spiritual evolutionary experiences of my life. For years afterward, I could feel the download of energy from the whale slowly integrating into my experience, evolving my body to a higher vibration so that I could tolerate more and more awareness.

SHADOW ASPECTS OF THE TWELFTH DIMENSION

As this dimension is unified, there are no shadow aspects. However, my guides tell me that throughout the history of the universe, there have been numerous rogue guides who have violated Spiritual Law itself and used the energies of this dimension for separation. An example would be a rogue guide who attempted to destroy or mutate a spiritual lineage or whole plane of existence within a dimension. I have also heard that throughout the entire evolutionary course of the earth, there has been only one incarnated twelfth dimensional rogue being. Other rogue guides mainly use their energies to influence human consciousness or, as is more often the case, negatively influence other more powerful beings in higher vibration dimensions.

TRAVELING IN THE TWELFTH DIMENSION

- I distinctly remember having a near death/soul exchange experience, traveling from the universe through a black hole and landing on a transitional plane in about the seventh dimension. From there, I then made my way into a body. I remember the whoosh of moving through a revolving vortex that allowed me to transduce my frequency into this universe. It all happened within a millisecond! It was like a very fast ride down a water slide! I remember my electrons whiz-banging around, my quarks going in and out of dimensions and rotating and revolving at whirlwind speeds. It was all very exciting!

- It is not possible to place one's brain or whole body into the twelfth dimension. The only way to get a glimmer of this dimension is to extend the vibration of your consciousness there.
- The twelfth dimension is really a de-magnetized dimension with no polarities and no attraction to anything.
- The twelfth dimension is the true vibration of the atom...and the atom's pure vibration is joy! When all of the atomic and subatomic particles are rotating to the pure twelfth dimension, there is awareness of one's multidimensionality but in a very different way than the other higher-order dimensions. Here, it is actually possible to sense the self clicking in and out of this universe and all of the other dimensions. One may appear here one moment, disappear the next and yet still be mysteriously connected through all.
- From the perspective of the twelfth dimension, the true illusory nature of reality becomes potently real. The experience of form and illusion emerging from creation is palpable. Reality's ephemeral nature is simply real and true and there is no emotional reaction to it.

ASSOCIATED SENSATIONS WHEN PRESENT IN THE TWELFTH DIMENSION

- My consciousness loves to float into twelfth dimensional atomic space. It is like sitting in the most wonderful, snuggly, black velvety space where my ego dissolves into transparency. It comfortably and securely frees my ego, lifting me from her burden. I feel clear, liquid invisibility that is pure awareness. There are no polarities here; nothing pulls at me; nothing distracts me. Rather than an empty feeling of void, it is a full, alive and joyful state with crystalline clarity. I feel my atoms spinning, the mineral, metal and ore molecules steaming and churning as they burn off karmic residue and other bodily toxins. With each moment, I feel my atoms renewing, remembering their original purpose: to express the joy of the universe!
- The quantum caves are well lighted and warmly furnished. The Masters create an illusion that engenders a personally comfortable feeling. Many Masters are from indigenous tribes and so are suitably dressed in their tribal garb. The walls of the caves are usually made of limestone and feel very secure to the body.

APPLICATION OF THE TWELFTH DIMENSION

- When working from this dimension, it is not really energies that are used. The place itself on the rim of the black hole inside your atoms contains the healing/evolving consciousness. This constitutes a quantum model of healing.
- Quantum healing models were primarily designed to be used for planetary, inter-planetary, galactic, universal and inter-universal work.
- Quantum healing models are also most frequently used to evolve the individual's energy field and energy structures.
- Miraculous healing derives from a mastery of this dimension as the twelfth dimension does an "end run" around time and space; time and space anchor in all diseases, symptoms, pain and suffering.

- As the twelfth dimension is all-inclusive and precludes separation, working from this place allows you to simultaneously work on all levels of the human energy field.
- Genetic work is deeply supported by the twelfth dimension.
- The twelfth dimensional energies are used to resolve the irresolvable.
- Quantum cave work is very different from “sitting on the rim of the black hole” work. There are caves that can be utilized for just about everything: universal and planetary work, physical, mental and emotional healing, healing the collective unconscious of a place or nation. If you ask Gabriella of the Santa Fe Mountains for help with a specific request or intention, she will gladly guide you to a cave that is just right for you even if you cannot identify consciously the location of the cave.

GUIDES

The Quantum Masters along with an invocation of All Quantum Spiritual Laws and the New Quantum Masters along with the invocation of the New Quantum Spiritual Laws Quantum Masters refer to the ascended masters who still exist on the earth. The New Quantum Masters refer to ascended Masters who dwell on the future earth or earth in its future evolutionary state.
